FOR SALE—Miscellaneous

"Dad," roared an urchin, "Where came those whiskers and what for?" You say, "I know not."

At 18 some little strings appeared: They multiplied at manhood, to my sorrow.

At 30 they were bushed, and silky threads Were woven close to lips, so luscious and so coy.

As years swept on, those wavy strings grew, And glisters sweet, took umbrage at the scratch.

Which marked their pearly cheeks, when I did smile Voluptuous bliss from she I chanced to like.

At 50, interwoven colors seemed to say, "Old Hoss, your jig is up, the dog has had his day."

With children now you vain may play, But hovers not near maids, or widows gay.

"Those whiskers, sure have proved the shroud, Which your career, now ended, marked as loud."

I'd shave the mass, to be once re-instate. But little birdies twitter, "Ford, too late."

Always too late—These junkies are getting me. I'll wake up and quote prices to scare 'em.

Will first casually say that if you need beds, mattresses, springs, cots, couches, or folding beds, I will show you a lot to choose from that will open your orbits.

For your porch or lawn, I have the iron swinging chair, $2.25.

The wooden frame, easy chair, $1.25 to $2.50.

Dining chairs, never so cheap, $1.25 to $2.00.

Common chairs, 50c up.

Rockers, my assortment is surely complete.

An elegant new wicker set—settee and table with polished oak top. Bill to show cost $55.00; yours for $20.00.

In white enamel, a ladies dressing table and chiffonier. They cost $45. Price here $20.00.

In cherry, a most exquisite dresser, chiffonier and ladies writing desk—cost $85. Yours for $30.00. Also rocker and table if desired.

In maple, the handsome dresser, 2 chairs and table which cost $50, I sell for $22.00.

Buffets and sideboards in wood or glass, perfectly lovely. $10.00.

A Remington typewriter, A. I., $15.00. This dustless motor carpet and house cleaner is a gem. It cost $125.00. Price $20.00. You can use the 1-8 H. P. motor on it for anything, just attach to electric bulb.

Cameras in large, medium, and small sizes. Price ridiculous.

Have lovely electric and gasoline lamps, and fancy ornamental hanging fixtures, cheap.

No need to tell you of a car load of refrigerators and ice boxes from $3.50 to $12.00, capacity up to 300 lbs. ice.

I'm tired harping on stoves, ranges and plates, for wood, coal, gas, gasoline, coal oil. You'd rather pay gas company 100 per cent more for style, or buy a new range for three times what I charge, and then holler, "Poverty, hard times!" and all that rot. Wake up, come to Ford's—he's the poor man's friend.

For miners, the shaft blower, windlass, Davis Whim, Little engine and hoist, wire cable and tools, are here for sale cheap.

This "De Laval" cream separator is guaranteed. All fixtures to attract power; has 900 lbs. capacity and has only seen three months' use. $25.00.

Tents, guns, tools, hardware, clothes and hats; crockery, tinware, clocks, and watches, and every day—thing imaginable. It takes 2 stores to handle these goods, but both connect in rear.

Some feller said Ford was not the cheapest junkie. He's a — I follow no man to undersell me.

You have goods to sell—anything and everything! Bring to Ford. I pay spot cash. Say, here's truth. I offered $40 for a bunch of furniture, was refused, found them at auction sale, bought the cream for 25 per cent less than I offered, counted up results and after they paid commissions they were $15.00 shy—Don't you be such a fool. Ha! Ha! Ford not an honorable dealer, eh? Why he's a pippin. Don't miss his number. 40 South Central avenue and 24 West Jefferson. Phone 1776.
